

Fact sheet for 2018

General Information on the Institution

Full Name	Universidad Autónoma de Baja California
Website	http://www.uabc.mx

Description: The UABC is a public State University founded in 1957 and is focused on teaching, research, outreach and extension services. Currently UABC offers 74 bachelor's educative programs and 43 posgraduate educative programs, all recognized by National Council of Science and Technology (CONACYT). Has an enrollment of 63,642 bachelor's students and 1,681 posgraduate students. The UABC has 1,293 full time faculty members of which 892 are accredited by the Development Professional Teaching Program (PRODEP), and 351 researchers belong to National System of Researchers (SNI-CONACYT). These latest work the areas of Agricultural sciences, Engineering and technology sciences, Natural and exact sciences, Health sciences, Economic and administrative sciences, Social sciences, and Education, humanities and behavioral sciences. In 2016 the UABC occupies the position number 122nd. In the Latin American University QS Ranking and the 7th. place among the State public universities in México. Finally, the academic and administrative activities carry to out in three campuses located in Ensenada, Mexicali and Tijuana, all in the State of Baja California.

Office of International Cooperation and Academic Exchange

Website	http://www.uabc.mx/ccia/
Address	Edificio de Rectoría, Avenida Álvaro Obregón s/n, Col. Nueva, C.P. 021100 Mexicali, Baja California, México
Tel	+52 (686) 551-82-30

Academic Calendar

Spring Semester	Beginning of February- end of June
Fall Semester	Beginning of August - end of December

Courses

<http://www.uabc.mx/formacionbasica/programaseducativos.html>

Academic programs available for exchange students in any field of knowledge in the Ensenada, Mexicali and Tijuana Campus.

Language a requirements for exchange students:

UABC requires a good knowledge of Spanish or English in order to communicate and function in an academic context.

Application Process:

Comply with the selection process of their Institution to participate in the exchange program and be nominated by their own University.

- Application

Please submit all required documents through the email at bernal.montserrat@uabc.edu.mx

- Application Deadlines

Spring Semester (Beginning of February- end of June)	November 9, 2018
Fall Semester (Beginning of August - end of December)	May 11, 2018

- Application Documents <http://www.uabc.mx/ccii/exchange-students.html>:

1. UABC Application Form
2. UABC Learning Agreement
3. Nomination Letter (Issued by the home University)
4. Official Transcripts of Records
5. Copy of passport
6. Motivation Letter
7. International health insurance
8. Institutional Guidelines Form

Living in Baja California, México (Price subject to change)

Housing	$1,000
Meals	$1,200
Local Transportation	$ 400
Others (Personal)	$1,000

Approximate monthly living costs, Dollars per semester*

Insurance

All visiting students must have health insurance. International Students before leaving their home country must hire a health insurance that is valid during the exchange period, considering that it must cover repatriation and full coverage medical insurance. The students have to purchase their own health and repatriation insurance.

Visa

All international students should take their Multiple Migratory Form (FMM) to the National Migration Institute when arriving to Mexico. For stays longer than 180 days, a Temporary Resident Student Visa shall be requested at the Mexican Consulate in their origin country.

Contacts at UABC

Responsibility	Name	E-mail
Coordinator of International Cooperation	José David Ledezma Torres	davis@uabc.edu.mx
Head of International Cooperation and Agreements	Aracely Sosa Salas	aracely.sosa@uabc.edu.mx
International Exchange Program (Incoming-Outgoing)	Montserrat Bernal Becerra	bernal.montserrat@uabc.edu.mx