Erasmus+ Programme

Key Action 1

- Mobility for learners and staff - Higher Education Student and Staff Mobility

Inter-institutional¹ agreement 2017-20[21]² between institutions from programme and partner countries

[Minimum requirements]³

The institutions named below agree to cooperate for the exchange of students and/or staff in the context of the Erasmus+ programme. They commit to respect the quality requirements of the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education in all aspects of the organization and management of the mobility, in particular the recognition of the credits (or equivalent) awarded to students by the partner institution. The institutions also commit to sound and transparent management of funds allocated to them through Erasmus+.

D. Respect of fundamental principles and other mobility requirements

The higher education institution(s) located in a programme country⁷ of Erasmus+ must respect the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education of which it must be a holder. The charter can be found here:

http://eacea.ec.europa.eu/funding/2014/call_he_charter_en.php

The higher education institution(s) located in a partner country of Erasmus+ must respect the following set of principles and requirements:

The higher education institution agrees to:

- Respect in full the principles of non-discrimination and to promote and ensure equal access and opportunities to mobile participants from all backgrounds, in particular disadvantaged or vulnerable groups.
- Apply a selection process that is fair, transparent and documented, ensuring equal opportunities to participants eligible for mobility.
- Ensure recognition for satisfactorily completed activities of study mobility and, where possible, traineeships of its mobile students.
- Charge no fees, in the case of credit mobility, to incoming students for tuition, registration, examinations or access to laboratory and library facilities. Nevertheless, they may be charged small fees on the same basis as local students for costs such as insurance, student unions and the use of miscellaneous material.

The higher education institution located in a partner country of Erasmus further undertakes to:

Before mobility

- Provide information on courses (content, level, scope, language) well in advance of the mobility periods, so as to be transparent to all parties and allow mobile students to make well-informed choices about the courses they will follow.
- Ensure that outbound mobile participants are well prepared for the mobility, including having attained the necessary level of linguistic proficiency.

⁷Erasmus+ programme countries are the 28 EU countries, the EFTA countries and other European countries as defined in the Call for proposals.

Erasmus+

- Ensure that student and staff mobility for education or training purposes is based on a learning agreement for students and a mobility agreement for staff validated in advance between the sending and receiving institutions or enterprises and the mobile participants.
- Provide assistance related to obtaining visas, when required, for incoming and outbound mobile participants. Costs for visas can be covered with the mobility grants. See the information / visa section for contact details.
- Provide assistance related to obtaining insurance, when required, for incoming and outbound mobile participants. The institution from the Partner country should inform mobile participants of cases in which insurance cover is not automatically provided. Costs for insurance can be covered with the organizational support grants. See the information / insurance section for contact details.
- Provide guidance to incoming mobile participants in finding accommodation. See the information / housing section for contact details.

During and after mobility

- Ensure equal academic treatment and services for home students and staff and incoming mobile participants and integrate incoming mobile participants into the institution's everyday life, and have in place appropriate mentoring and support arrangements for mobile participants as well as appropriate linguistic support to incoming mobile participants.
- Accept all activities indicated in the learning agreement as counting towards the degree, provided these have been satisfactorily completed by the mobile student.
- Provide, free-of-charge, incoming mobile students and their sending institutions with transcripts in English or in the language of the sending institution containing a full, accurate and timely record of their achievements at the end of their mobility period.
- Support the reintegration of mobile participants and give them the opportunity, upon return, to build on their experiences for the benefit of the Institution and their peers.
- Ensure that staff are given recognition for their teaching and training activities undertaken during the mobility period, based on a mobility agreement.

E. Any additional requirements

Incoming Mobility: <http://www.dre.unal.edu.co/es/movilidad/incoming.html>

WSZECHNICA POLSKA UNIVERSITY IN WARSAW:

Enrolment. According to the exchange policy of Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw, incoming students must enroll for at least 50% of their credits at the faculty of admission. The other 50% can be taken at the rest of Wszechnica Polska centres/faculties, provided the groups are still open.

Erasmus+

Incoming students must be nominated by the Erasmus+ Coordinator at their home institution. The Coordinator of the sending institution has to send an official letter via e-mail and ordinary post in English to the International Relations Office at Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw.

Incoming students must complete an on-line application and submit it to the International Relations Office at Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw. Prior their arrival incoming students are to submit Learning Agreement to the above mentioned Office, which should be approved by the Erasmus+ Coordinator at the home University and also by the Erasmus+ Coordinator at Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw. After we have received all the documents and checked them, incoming students are provided with an official Letter of Acceptance. It is compulsory that students enroll for at least 50% of their credits in the same field of study and in the faculty to which they have been nominated by their home university.

Teaching Staff Mobility. A letter of invitation issued by an authorized Wszechnica Polska contact person is required prior to implementing Teaching Staff Mobility.

The guest lecturers inform the International Relations Office of Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw about the intended Incoming Teaching Staff Mobility. The above mentioned office issues and sends a letter of invitation to the guests lecturers. The participating teachers must agree a teaching programme before their arrival at Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw. The International Relations Office of Wszechnica Polska University in Warsaw issues an official letter of confirmation for the Erasmus+ - Teaching Staff Mobility and sends it to the partner University.
